JT-Q2725.2　B-ISDN User Part – Modification Procedures

1. Relations with international standards

　　　This Standard conforms to the Recommendation Q.2725.2 approved at ITU-T SG11 plenary meeting in July 1996.

2. Summary of departures from ITU-T Recommendations

2.1 Optional items

　　　None.

2.2 National items

　　　None.

2.3 Others

(1) This Standard has no items that go ahead of those in ITU-T Recommendations.

(2) The following item is deleted from the above ITU-T Recommendation:

　　　(a) Description specific for international calls

　　　　This is because it is not required in a national standard.

(3) This Standard has no items that are added to the above ITU-T Recommendations.

(4) It should be noted that the message for modification confirmation is called "Modify confirm (MOC)" in this Standard, as this Standard conforms to the Recommendation Q.2725.2 approved at ITU-T SG11 plenary meeting in July 1996, whereas the second editions of Q.2762 and Q.2763 approved at ITU-T SG11 plenary meeting in November-December 1999 change the name of the message to "Connection available (COA)".

2.4 Comparison of chapter composition between the ITU-T Recommendation and this Standard

　　　There is no deference in chapter composition with the above ITU-T Recommendation.

3. The history of revised versions
